Resident Life

A MONTHLY RESIDENT UPDATE

JapanFest

JapanFest Weekend will be held on September 19th and 20th, from 10 am to 6 pm (Saturday) and 10am to 5pm (Sunday) at the Convention Center at Gwinnett Center (located at 6400 Sugarloaf Parkway, Duluth, GA 30097).

JapanFest, now in its 23rd year, is the largest Japanese festival east of Houston and south of Washington, DC, and typically draws crowds exceeding 18,500. Organized by The Japan-America Society of Georgia, The Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Georgia, and the Consulate General of Japan, JapanFest is designed to promote understanding between Japanese and Americans in the Southeast.

Tickets are $8, children age 6 or younger free. Teachers can bring their students to JapanFest for free by applying online. Larger organizations can save money by purchasing advanced ticket packages online.

The theme of this year's festival is Cool Japan. "Cool Japan" is a term that describes the growing international interest in Japanese culture, especially in the realms of fashion, anime, music, cuisine, and technology. JapanFest 2009 will explore these aspects of modern Japanese pop culture through a modern kimono fashion show, anime screenings, fun Japanese foods such as shaved ice and plenty of sushi, the latest products manufactured right here in Georgia by Japanese companies, an appearance by NASCAR racer Akinori Ogata, and more!

Lasagna Dinner to Support the Atlanta Food Bank

In our efforts to outlaw hunger, we need your support for lasagna dinner on the go to raise money for the Atlanta Community Food Bank. On Tuesday, September 22nd from 5:30 PM until 7:00 PM, we will have a prepared lasagna dinner, with a side salad and a roll at the Resident Activity Center for the donation of $5. We have dinner covered for anyone who would like a warm meal after getting home from their busy work day. We will be serving from 5:30 PM until 7:00 PM or while food supplies last. This is your chance to enjoy a nice meal and to help those who are not as fortunate. We look forward to seeing you there!

Friday Night Movie Night

Join us once more for our Friday Night Movie Night at AMLI at McGinnis Ferry. On Friday, September 25th, bring those picnic goodies, and snuggle in for our movie of choice behind our leasing office. The movie will begin at dark (around 8:30PM), and we will have music an hour before the show begins and popcorn for a light snack. Prior to the screening of the movie, we will have a pie in the face Event for one of our lucky office team members in honor of the Atlanta Community Food Bank. Feel free to drop by and continue donating in your jar of choice because your donation will count!
